Original Video Frames

Key Event Memory Construction

You are a memory-allocation router for a streaming video understanding system... Choose one category for the question... Question: Why can thieves enter the room without being detected?

"category": heavy key event, "reason": The question requires understanding a historical event (thieves entering). This likely involves searching across earlier events or broad temporal coverage.

Selected visual memory (key event+recent)

Answer: Because the masters have all fallen asleep.